

Researcher Job Description

Researchers have a responsibility to communicate their research, to collaborate with others where appropriate and to transfer and exploit knowledge for the benefit of the field, the economy and society as a whole. Researchers have a responsibility to behave honestly and ethically in the course of their research.

SRAE Researcher Needs to Assist Project Director with:

1. research design, (see grant FOA page 6)
2. planning
3. permissions
4. protection of human subjects (privacy)
5. data collection
6. monitoring
7. continuous program improvement
8. assist with facilitating focus groups (qualitative analysis)
9. analysis of reports
10. write report
11. publish report in peer review journal
12. disseminate program impact